

Offshore & Coastal Zone Survey Services

PMSS is a multi-disciplinary consultancy specialising in project development, project delivery, due diligence, health & safety, environment & consulting, quality management, technical services and civil, structural & electrical engineering.

We have a proven capability and track record in the delivery of offshore wind energy projects during design, development, construction and operational phases.

We understand the key risks with offshore & coastal zone surveys and the importance of high quality datasets.

We provide an industry leading survey team of industry professionals with expertise in:

- Scoping
- Planning
- Execution
- Management

PMSS have the capability to manage offshore and coastal zone surveys for the project life-cycle, from scoping to data archive. This provides clients with the high quality survey data acquisition and therefore robust information required for decision making.

The types of survey PMSS can manage include:

- Geophysical
- Geotechnical
- Environmental
- Metocean
- Navigation
- Coastal zone topographic

The range of PMSS services offered includes:

- Survey design, specification and scoping
- Procurement of survey resources and vessels
- Survey management
- HSE / vessel audits
- Data Quality Management and Assurance
- Client representation
- Data analysis / review / mapping
- GIS analysis and presentation